D
Walkin' down the street, I heard a hip-hop beat,
G A
Then a car drove by blaring some rap guy.
D G A
I stopped to eat in a restaurant, where a crooner crooned on an old jukebox.
Em C A
There's music everywhere I go, but I drive home on country roads.

D A
Country's got rhythm and soul,
G A
A touch of the blues and some rock and roll.
G A
Melodies anyone can sing,
G A
And truth that tugs at my heart strings.
Em A D
I wanna crank it up and dance 'til I drop.....Country rocks!

D
Lying on the beach soakin' up the sun,
G A
I grabbed myself a beer and I joined the fun,
D
With a couple of babes bopping in the waves,
G A
Took them to a club where a jazz band played.
Em C A
There's music everywhere I go, but I drive home on country roads.

D A
 Country's got rhythm and soul,
 G A
 A touch of the blues and some rock and roll.
 G A
 Melodies anyone can sing,
 G A
 And truth that tugs at my heart strings.
 Em A D D
 I wanna crank it up and dance 'til I drop.....Country rocks!

Em G
 It's happy, hurtin', lovin', leavin',
 C A
 Toe-tappin' two-steppin' dancin' when you need it.

D A
 Country's got rhythm and soul,
 G A
 A touch of the blues makes me lose control.
